Taylor Heritage Square Farmers Market set to begin October 5

TAYLOR, Texas – The City of Taylor Main Street Program is proud to present the Taylor Heritage Square Farmers Market on Main beginning this October. The Market will be open to the public on Saturday, October 5, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Heritage Square Pavilion and will continue every Saturday until November 23.

The Market is focused on locally grown produce and farm products from the region, but may also host a limited amount of ready to eat and value added products, as well as craft products, to support local artisans, downtown Taylor businesses and food based entrepreneurs.

The Market is open to any vendors interested in selling goods. An application and list of guidelines is available online at www.taylortx.gov.

For more information about any upcoming events being held in conjunction with the Market, please <http://www.taylortx.gov/961/Farmers-Market>. For questions, call 512-352-5448.
