TAYLOR PUBLIC LIBRARY TO OPEN FOR GRAB AND GO SERVICES

TAYLOR, Texas – On Monday, June 15, the Taylor Public Library will open with limited hours and services for grab and go service.

The Library will be open:

- Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.
- Thursday from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m.
- The Library will be closed on Saturday.

Schedule and services are subject to change.

There will be a limit of 48 people at a time in the Library and only two people per household allowed entrance. Patrons can have five check outs per Library card and new card registration will be available at the Reference Desk. Other circulation limits remain. Please use the outside bookdrop for all returns.

The public computers, photocopier, meeting room, study rooms and archives will remain closed for now.

For everyone's safety, staff encourages patrons to wear a facemask and asks that visitors follow social distancing protocols. There will be sanitizer and tissues available. Please stay home if you are sick or exhibiting any symptoms.

For more details, please contact the Library at 512-352-3434.

The City of Taylor continues to monitor ongoing and fluid COVID-19 situation closely with the Williamson County and WCCHD. Updates will be posted at taylortx.gov and on social media as they become available. For more information, please visit www.taylortx.gov
