The Day Mr. Moree Came . . .

October 17th: The day of upset teachers, gallons of spray net, and an abundance of stiff necks-ANYTHING for a beautiful hairdo!

It's okay, Carol. You can sit down.

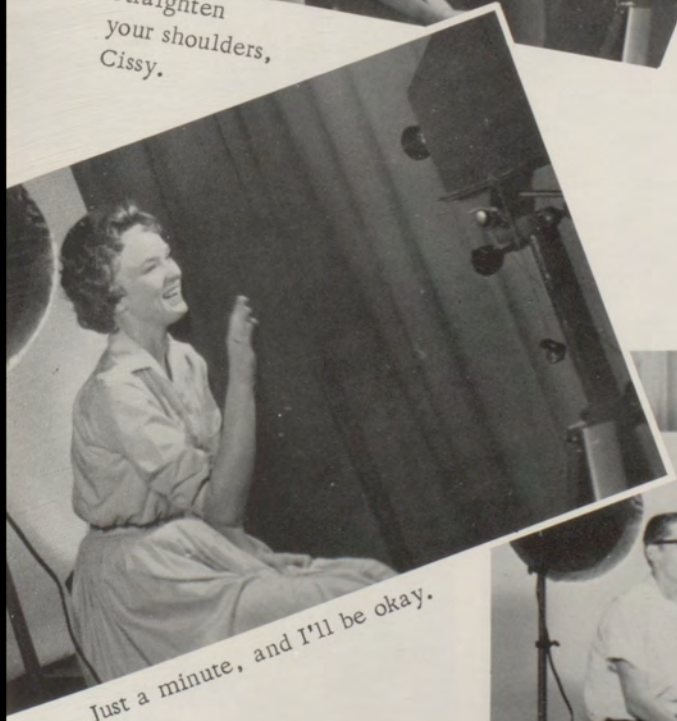

Couldn't I turn that way?

Straighten your shoulders, Cissy.

Ah . . . now we're all ready!

Just a minute, and I'll be okay.

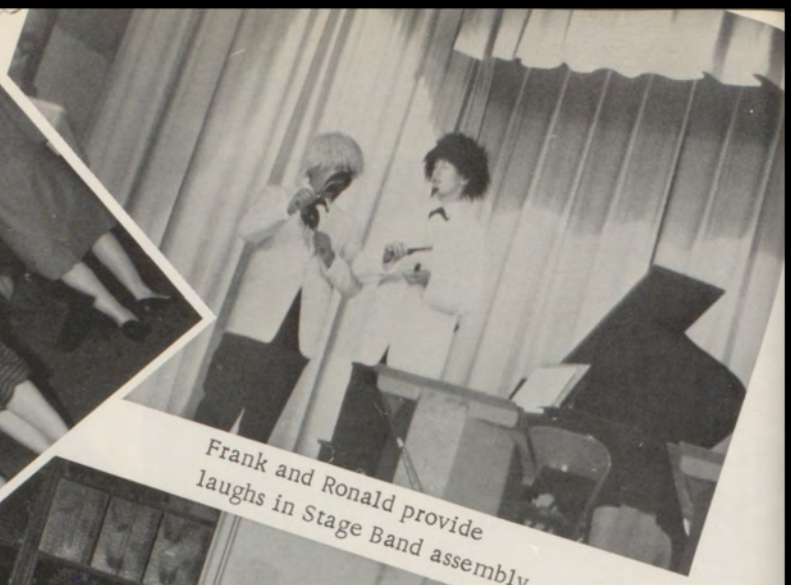

Be sure to show your dimples, Gavin.

The camera clicks. Mr. Moree sighs, wipes his brow, and prepares to take another shot.

C'mon, let's get in the picture too!

Charlie . . .

They said it couldn't be done. And during the hectic week preceding the performance, the prologue, there were times when we wished we could turn back the clock, if only for a few hours. But in the end the class worked diligently, and the reviews of the play, our epilogue, told of a very successful venture. A few of the many who helped behind the scenes included:

Promptors: Carol Raesz and Pat Johnson

Production: Mahon Garry

8:00 P.M.

High School Auditorium

Processional: "Pomp and Circumstance" ..... Elgar
Janis Wilks

Invocation ..... Rev. Chas. Roberts

Hymn: "Take Time To Be Holy" ..... Congregation

Take time to be holy,
Speak oft with the Lord;
Abide in Him always,
And feed on His Word.
Make friends with God's children
Help those who are weak;
Forgetting in nothing
His blessing to seek

Take time to be holy,
The world rushes on,
Spend much time in secret
With Jesus alone —
By looking to Jesus,
Like Him thou shalt be;
Thy friends in thy conduct
His likeness shall see.

Scripture Reading and Prayer ..... Rev. Josef A. Barton

Special ..... Carol Raesz, Allana Brill

Sermon ..... Rev. Warren Hall

Hymn: "America The Beautiful" ..... Congregation

O beautiful for spacious skies
For amber waves of grain
For purple mountain majesties
Above the fruited plain!
America! America!
God shed His grace on thee,
And crowned thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea!

O beautiful for patriot dream
That sees beyond the years
Thine alabaster cities gleam,
Undimmed by human tears!
America! America!
God shed His grace on thee,
And crowned thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea!

Benediction ..... Rev. Paul Powell
