Warrant Round Up to Begin in March in Taylor

TAYLOR, Texas – The City of Taylor Police Department, is conducting a warrant round up through February and March of 2019.

Currently, there are 3,344 individuals listed on the outstanding warrants list. Henry Fluck, Chief of Police says, “The Taylor Police Department will be heavily concentrating efforts on clearing pending warrants and will be aggressively pursuing those who avoid turning themselves in or paying the outstanding fees associated with their warrant.”

To avoid the embarrassment of being arrested at work or elsewhere in the city, individuals may pay their fine by one of the following:

- MAIL A MONEY ORDER TO THE COURT’S ADDRESS NOTED BELOW.
- PUT A MONEY ORDER IN THE COURT’S DROP BOX AT THE ADDRESS NOTED BELOW.
- APPEAR AT THE COURT AND PAY BY CASH CREDIT CARD OR MONEY ORDER.
- PAY ON-LINE ON THE COURT’S WEBSITE.

Municipal Court
109 W. Fifth Street
Taylor, Texas 76574

Individuals who voluntarily take care of case(s), will not be arrested. Individuals should be prepared to pay fines and costs or post a bond if they wish to contest a case. To confirm the amount of a fine(s), individuals may call the court at 512-352-5977 or by email: court@taylortx.gov. If a person is unable to pay the total amount owed, they must appear at the court to see the judge.

The Municipal Court is open Monday through Friday from 8am-5pm: Extended hours during warrant roundup listed below: February 5th, 6th, 11th, 12, 19th, 20th, 26th, 27th from 8:00 a.m. – 7:00 p.m.
